

JI ZHOU

(Beijing, China, 1970)

Ji Zhou estudió grabado en la Academia Central de Bellas Artes de Beijing (1994). Posteriormente, obtuvo una Maestría en Bellas Artes (MFA) de la Universidad de París I Pantheon-Sorbonne (2005). Su obra se caracteriza por ser contemplativa, formulando preguntas a través de diversas técnicas fotográficas que cuestionan ideas comunes en torno a la objetividad y la certeza fotográfica.

A través de imágenes de desarrollo urbano, invernaderos y maquetas en miniatura que aluden a espacios urbanos y paisajes indefinidos, la producción del artista se expande filosóficamente como una forma de repensar las relaciones entre perspectiva, sentidos, racionalidad y realidad. En su serie “Building”, por ejemplo, se cuestiona la calidad documental de la fotografía de paisajes urbanos por un montaje que mezcla diferentes épocas en un mismo lugar; el espacio unitario se vuelve imposible cuando se introducen consideraciones de tiempo.

Actualmente, Ji Zhou vive y trabaja en Beijing, China.
