

FRANCE-LISE MCGURN

(Glasgow, Escocia, 1983)

Se graduó en Bellas Artes por el Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art & Design de Dundee, Escocia en el 2005, mismo año en que la Royal Scottish Academy le otorgó la beca John Kinross, que le permitió realizar una estadía en Florencia, Italia. En el 2012 obtuvo el Master en Pintura, por el Royal College of Art de Londres en, periodo en que hizo un intercambio en el Hunter College of Art, Nueva York, NY.

Inspiradas en el arte clásico y la cultura popular contemporánea las piezas de McGurn se caracterizan por la fluidez e intuición de sus pinceladas que, con trazos orgánicos retratan personajes imaginarios en íntimas escenas que exploran diversos temas. En sus composiciones podemos apreciar el uso frecuente de veladuras lavadas, figuras desnudas y trazos superpuestos.

Actualmente vive y trabaja en Glasgow, Escocia.
